

We are looking for a suitable candidate for the position of

Sales Manager B2B

Your job description would be:

- actively searching new clients and selling our products
- care for assigned portfolio of clients, including the continuous deepening of relations
- meeting established goals and plans
- cooperation within the team and meeting team goals

Requirements:

- practical experience in B2B sales
- ability to communicate and manage the development of sales channels
- creativity, imagination, ideas
- Freelance
- own car an advantage, not provided

We offer:

- creative work in a dynamic company
- participation in interesting projects
- very pleasant working environment in a group of young people
- wide space for the subsequent development (curriculum, career development)
- interesting and motivating remuneration with many extras
- business phone

If interested, please send your CV and references to e-mail: fischer@business-affairs.eu